

Don't worry, just pray MAY 2011

LET US PRAY THIS MONTH FOR EVERY WORKER ...

Prayer Calendar

SUN	MON	TUE	WED	THU	FRI	SAT
1 taking a break on Workersday.	2 who is currently helping out and doing relieve work in Japan.	3 involved in ministry - preachers, evangelists, missionaries, each believer.	4 in the academic field, especially teachers and tutors.	5 for balance in his/her life. 	6 at your local municipality, including the mayor and town council.	7 in traffic departments across our country, ensuring our safety on the roads.
8 in a job: "If you choose to do a job that you like, you will never have to do a day's work." Confucius	9 educating our communities on health issues such as HIV/AIDS.	10 involved in the social upliftment of people in rural and previously disadvantaged areas.	11 in the medical sector of the community, such as nurses, doctors, therapists.	12 at emergency services, including paramedics and ER 24 staff.	13 who is keeping us and our possessions safe by fighting fires.	14 in the private sector, especially the administrative personnel.
15 at the Department of Correctional services - for their safety and reformation responsibilities.	16 in the Police force who has to maintain law and order, especially during the upcoming elections.	17 feeling overwhelmed today: "No job is too big if you divided it into small portions." Henry Ford	18 helping out at the Municipal elections today.	19 involved in the counting of votes today.	20 in Parliament - from the cleaners up to the decision makers.	21 who is stressed out.
22 in telecommunications - telephone, internet, radio, television.	23 at ESKOM , helping in supplying every household and business with electricity each day.	24 ensuring that we have enough water available for use, including the environmentalists and engineers.	25 in the Defence force, who is protecting our country from illegal invaders.	26 in large trucks on the roads transporting our daily needs to our doorsteps.	27 who is part of the building sector, working hard to get everybody in SA a home.	28 on a farm or in a farming community, including seasonal and temporary workers.
29 who is employed in any kind of agricultural related sector.	30 with a dream: "The only way to reach success, is to work, work, WORK!" Benjamin Franklin	31 employed - for the privilege of having a job and an income!				